

FirmSite websites for law firms

FINDLAW WEBSITES NOW LESS THAN $80 PER MONTH

We are pleased to announce that FirmSite are addressing the needs of their customers who really need to be marketing themselves on the internet.

Current clients and potential clients are researching more than ever, looking for what type of services are available to them on the internet and who is value for money!

Internet users are savvy and will be typing in their problems to see who is appearing in the search results on the internet and what type of information appears on their website. If you haven't got a site or the information is not up-to-date or informative enough, they won't be hanging around for you to fix it up or give you a second chance!

The Offer!

- 7 page template website – that is fully updateable by the user including hosting!
- Registration and submission with all the major search engines!
- Multiple designs to choose from!
- Full training on how to update your website by one of our national trainers!
- Site can be up and fully functional within a week!

 Special conditions apply minimum contract 2 years – total offer $950 per annum

The only decision you have to make is what template you would like to choose from our many templates. Your Logo can be utilised on the site.
